

isEazy offers its catalog of soft skills courses to OpenSesame users

- isEazy, the leading Spanish e-learning technology company, has partnered with the virtual learning platform OpenSesame to offer its users an accessible catalog of courses for developing soft skills.
- With this partnership, isEazy will provide its new accessible e-learning content and courses on key topics such as leadership, emotional intelligence, and diversity to OpenSesame users in the United States and Europe.
- This is the first catalog of courses with over 90 resources that meet 100% of level AA and 80% of level AAA of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG), without compromising on interactive elements, multimedia, or games.

Madrid, July 6th 2023 – Spanish technology company isEazy has partnered with the digital learning platform OpenSesame to grant users access to their catalog of soft skills courses and new accessible e-learning content. The collaboration aims to expand the reach of isEazy's soft skills courses, now available to OpenSesame clients in the United States and Europe.

Since it was founded in 2011, OpenSesame has become one of the world's largest content libraries, offering over 30,000 courses from more than 300 providers to enhance internal talent within organizations. As experts in e-learning content, the alliance with isEazy provides a key advantage in enriching their course offering, with important topics such as mental health or AI, while aligning with Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion strategies. This policy demands that online training programs be accessible to ensure equal development opportunities for all employees.

Spencer Thornton, SVP of Curation at OpenSesame, explains, "We are delighted to welcome isEazy to OpenSesame Plus. Their courses offer new perspectives for practical problem-solving, addressing the changing needs of our learners. We believe that this high-quality content, along with its new accessible format, will provide immense value and enhance the learning experience for all our users."

On the other hand, isEazy, the leading e-learning technology company, has made a significant commitment to the accessibility of the training content in its isEazy Skills catalog. It offers around 300 courses in 7 languages, 90 of which comply with 100% of level AA and 80% of level AAA of the Web Content Accessibility Guidelines (WCAG), as well as Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act for the workforce in the United States.

With this new agreement, the company provides OpenSesame users with the first catalog of soft skills (also known as power skills) content with over 90 e-learning accessible courses: "We are proud to open our offering of accessible courses and power skills development to OpenSesame clients. It is a key partnership to expand the reach of our content, but also because of the values we share, placing diversity, equity, and inclusion at the center of our strategy," says Miguel Valverde, CEO of isEazy.

isEazy Skills offers training in power skills for the 8 key areas of any organization: Digital Mindset; Well-being and Happiness; Sustainability and Diversity; Leadership and High-Performance Teams; Communication and Interpersonal Relations; Change, Creativity, and Innovation; Sales and Customer Experience; Digital Efficiency and Productivity. Thanks to its 100% practical methodology and multimedia and interactive resources, isEazy Skills helps generate habits that all professionals can quickly transfer to the workplace.
